

WHEREAS, Harry John Griffin was born on December 7, 1922 and raised in Davie, served his country in World War II along with his two brothers, A.D and Carl, and many of his life long friends, and;

WHEREAS, when Harry John Griffin returned home from the war, he had saved enough money to buy a tractor. So he and his older brother, A.D., started the Griffin Brothers Company, and became one of the founding fathers of the Davie Community, and;

WHEREAS, in August of the year 1974, Harry John Griffin passed away, and will always be remembered as one of the settlers and pioneers who made Davie the great place it is today, and;

WHEREAS, on January 12, 1975, Mayor J. Kenneth King and the Davie Town Council dedicated the Davie Road bridge in memory of Harry John Griffin, and;

WHEREAS, on May 18, 2002, Mayor Harry Venis and the Davie Town Council will rededicate the Davie Road bridge in memory of Harry John Griffin.

NOW, The Town
18, 2002 as;

HARRY JOHN GRIFFIN DAY

and urge all those in the Town of Davie to attend the dedication ceremony, on May 18, 2002, at 11:00 a.m.

IN I have

2002.

Mayor Harry Venis, Town of Davie