- 12.1 A bargaining unit employee who attends court or a deposition in connection with a matter directly related to the performance of their official duties with the Town shall be compensated at their normal rate of pay when attending court or depositions during normal working hours.
- 12.2 A bargaining unit employee who attends court or deposition in connection with a matter directly related to the performance of their official duties with the Town outside their normal working day or on their authorized day off shall receive a minimum of three (3) hours pay at one and one-half (1½) times their regular hourly rate. A bargaining unit employ[REDACTED] who attends court or deposition in connection with a matter directly related to the performance of their official duties with the Town following their normal work hours on their normal work day shall receive pay at one and one-half (1½) times their regular hourly rate for the hour that are in addition to their normal work hours on that day.
- 12.3 Time spent in court or at a deposition will not count as hours worked for determining whether hours worked during the work week should be paid at the overtime rate.
- 12.4 An employee who is required to be on department determined stand-by status in connection with a job-related court case will be provided with a beeper. Accordingly, the employee will not be required to remain at home in a constant state of readiness to appear in court. Such stand-by time will not, therefore, be considered as time worked and employees will not receive compensation (overtime or straight time) for such time. However, an employee shall receive compensation at the rate of one and one-half (1 ½) times his/her regular rate of pay for extended stand-by status. For purposes of this article, extended stand-by status is defined as stand-by time in excess of two (2) hours each day regardless of the number of cases for which the employee is on a stand-by status.

For example, if an employee is on stand-by status/extended stand-by status for one case from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. (it does not matter if it is for one case or more than one case) and from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. (again, it does not matter if it is for one case or more than one case), the employee will be on non-compensable stand-by status from 9:00 a.m. through 11:00 a.m. (two hour stand-by) and compensable extended stand-by status from 1:00 p.m. through 5:00 p.m. (four hours of extended stand-by) for which the employee shall receive overtime compensation at the rate of one and one-half (1 ½) times his/her regular rate of pay.
- 12.5 On all “mandatory” subpoenas, the employee must appear in court. On all “stand-by” subpoenas, an employee’s stand-by stops automatically UNLESS he/she is notified by the Town’s Court Liaison Officer that he/she is on extended stand-by. When an employee has been notified that his/her stand-by status has ended, and the employee is directed to report for trial, then the employee will be entitled to court time, if at all, under the provisions of Article 12.4.

- 792 12.6 For the purpose of this article, if the employee is canceled by the Davie Court Liaison Officer for a 793 mandatory court appearance by two (2) or more hours prior to the scheduled court appearance, the 794 employee will receive no compensation. If the employee is canceled more than one (1) hour but 795 less than two (2) hours prior to the scheduled court appearance, the employee will receive one (1)
796 hour of overtime compensation. If the employee is canceled less than one hour prior to the 797 scheduled court appearance, the employee will receive two (2) hours of overtime compensation.
798
- 799 12.7 Employees must carry a beeper during any day of mandatory court appearance and during periods
800 of standby.
