2.2 May 9, 2022 Meeting Minutes

Motion made by Mr. Silverstein, seconded by Mr. Herman, to approve the May 9, 2022 meeting minutes.

In a voice vote, motion carried 3-0 (with Mr. Alexander and Mr. Moore absent).

3. PRESENTATION

3.1 6550 Southwest 46th Street (Mark Erhardt)

Mr. Abramson provided background information on the Florida Fruit Land Co. subdivision which was recorded in 1911. The 1955 aerial depicts the map of Davie taking shape with the subject area still mostly agricultural.

The house discussed is a single-family home constructed in 1954. It is shotgun style with a gable designed roof. Structure material of South Dade Pine and has its original siding.

Mr. Mark Erhardt, property owner, stated he purchased the property in 2002. He wants to restore to historical standards. He said the original siding contains asbestos. He would like the property declared historical.

Mr. Silverstein asked what the vision was for the property and if he would be doing it himself. Mr. Erhardt said this is his retirement project and plans to restore as much as possible.

Mr. DeArmas said that the Board will work with Mr. Abramson on achieving his goals.

4. OLD BUSINESS – N/A

5. NEW BUSINESS

5.1 Town Historic Resources Survey Update (David Abramson)

Mr. Abramson introduced a new acronym; COA- Certificate of Appropriateness.

One of the Board responsibilities is to maintain an active system survey (Historic Resource).

The steps for the historic preservation process:

Step 1: Local Inventory (completed)

Step 2: Local Survey (drafting)

Step 3: Local Register; this is retained by the Town.

Step 4: Florida Master Site File (FMSF)

Step 5: National Register; anyone can register through the State Historic Preservation Service (Parks Service) and would be presented before the Board to vote on.

Step 6: Historic Marker

Mr. Abramson discussed Step2- Local Survey and its intention to document historic resources within the Town. The resources defined in the survey will assist the Historic Preservation Board in providing recommendations for the future. Those recommendations may include additional design surveys and designations of historic resources. The survey was templated by using other municipal surveys. The draft deadline is 1st/2nd Quarter 2023.

Mr. Abramson reviewed the Local Historic Resource Form. He discussed the categories provided. Mr. Silverstein questioned the categories within the endangered criteria. Mr. Abramson said that “neglect” will be moved into a different section of the form.

5.2 State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO) Update

State Historic Preservation Office (Florida) provides public information, education, training, and technical assistance, working with local governments with the development of local historic preservation. Mr. Abramson advised that Mariah Justice, who provided the training class is no longer the point of contact and has been replaced by Ruben Acosta.

Mr. Abramson said the State has meetings which are very informative, and he can provide the information to the Board.

5.3 2022 Pioneer Day Town of Davie Nominees

At the July 27, 2022, Town Council meeting, nominees were selected for the 2022 Pioneer Day:

- Dr. Cooper C. Kirk Award- Kim Weismantle
- Stuart P. McIver Historian’s Award- Davie Women’s Club
- Judge Clayton Nance Memorial Award- Barbara and Richard McCall, Priscilla Tindall, Tommy Gil

Mr. Abramson provided an overview of each award and the nominees. The Dr. Cooper C. Kirk Award is presented to a person or group devoted to the study of local history, support of historical research, preservation, or for helping promote local history and resources. The Judge Clayton Nance Memorial Award is presented to those involved in writing or supporting efforts regarding local history. The Stuart P.
